A few days ago I was having a discussion with a friend and while we were agreeing over a particular point, a new participant entered the discussion. Some aspect of his conversation made me realize that he was committing many of the rules of etymology and was making some common mistakes. He is not a linguist, but he uses the internet a lot to learn what he needs to know about languages. I would encourage the rest of you to stay focused and avoid making these mistakes, or any others that you can find in the literature
